

House Resolution No. 3002

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge Show-Me State residents whose significant contributions of time, energy, and expertise help students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Anita McNeill has attained considerable distinction as the secretary for the Nursing program at Crowder College in Neosho, Missouri; and

Whereas, on May 16, 2008, Anita McNeill will enhance her already impressive record of achievement when she is presented with a plaque detailing her special status as the Neosho Chamber of Commerce's selection to be the Crowder College Classified Employee of the Year; and

Whereas, Anita McNeill regularly goes far beyond the normal expectations of her job through her willingness to cook for three hundred students at a Health Care Career Day, clean classrooms, or listen to a struggling student; and

Whereas, Anita McNeill often is seen working with a sincere, warm smile on her face as she handles the multiple requests of a multitude of students crowding in her office; and

Whereas, Anita McNeill also goes the extra mile to help the Nursing Department faculty, even to the point of taking a test bank home to type the questions over the weekend; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its constitutionally mandated actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such outstanding Missouri citizens as Anita McNeill:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in the life and work of Anita McNeill, to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon being named as the Crowder College Classified Employee of the Year by the Neosho Chamber of Commerce, and to express our sincerest best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Anita McNeill.
